Dear Mrs. Eliza Jane

Greetings!

Thank you for the notice, we have revised our article according to the reviewer's directions, there are 2 things that we focused first on reference writing, we have adjusted the JLERI Authorized Guidelines, the second is related to the harmonization between criminal sanctions between the Indonesian Government Law and Customary Law. And we have fixed it. Every establishment of regional regulations must be harmonized with higher level and equal regulations. This is done with the aim of minimizing overlapping rules or contradicting the law because the consequences can be canceled or null and void. Despite the fact that criminal sanctions are regulated in the regional regulations, there are those who directly regulate the length of the sentence and the amount of the fine, while others only refer to the law.

Regards,

Tanti Kirana Utami
